UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

JOEY LAGUNA, ) 3:07-CV-244-RCJ(RAM) Plaintiff, )
 v. ) ORDER
 JOSEPH BRACKBILL, et al., ) Defendants. )

Before the Court is the Report and Recommendation of the United States Magistrate Judge (#22) ("Recommendation") entered on August 25, 2009. This action was referred to U.S. Magistrate Robert A. McQuaid, Jr., pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B) and LR IB 1-4. After a thorough review, the Magistrate Judge recommends that this Court enter an order granting defendants' motion for summary judgment (#14). No objection to the Report and Recommendation has been filed.

I. DISCUSSION

This Court "may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the findings or recommendations made by the magistrate." 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). Further, under 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), if a party makes a timely objection to the magistrate judge's recommendation, then this Court is required to "make a de novo determination of those portions of the [report and recommendation] to which objection is made."<sup>1</sup> Nevertheless, the statute does not "require[ ] some lesser review by [this Court] when no objections are filed." Thomas v. Arn, <sup>1</sup> For an objection to be timely, a party must serve and file it within 10 days after being served with the magistrate judge's report and recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(C).

1 474 U.S. 140, 149–50 (1985). Instead, under the statute, this Court is not required to conduct
2 “any review at all . . . of any issue that is not the subject of an objection.” Id. at 149. Similarly,
3 the Ninth Circuit has recognized that a district court is not required to review a magistrate
4 judge’s report and recommendation where no objections have been filed. See United States
5 v. Reyna-Tapia, 328 F.3d 1114 (9th Cir. 2003) (disregarding the standard of review employed
6 by the district court when reviewing a report and recommendation to which no objections were 7 made); see also Schmidt v. Johnstone, 263 F.Supp. 2d 1219, 1226 (D. Ariz. 2003) (reading
8 the Ninth Circuit’s decision in Reyna-Tapia as adopting the view that district courts are not
9 required to review “any issue that is not the subject of an objection.”). Thus, if there is no
10 objection to a magistrate judge’s recommendation, then this Court may accept the 11 recommendation without review. See e.g., Johnstone, 263 F.Supp. 2d at 1226 (accepting, 12 without review, a magistrate judge’s recommendation to which no objection was filed).

13 In this case, defendant has not filed an objection to the Magistrate Judge’s Report and 14 Recommendation. Although no objection was filed, this Court has reviewed the Report and 15 Recommendation (#22), and accepts it. Accordingly,

16 II. CONCLUSION

17 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendants’ Motion for Summary Judgment (#14) is 18 GRANTED. The Clerk of the Court shall enter judgment according.

19 IT IS SO ORDERED.

20 DATED: This 29 day of October, 2009.
